ANNOUNCES BANK PRESIDENT TO TAKE CHARGE OF HEAD OF CONVICT BOARD TEMPORARILY.

Montgomery, Ala., March 26—Governor O'Neal last night appointed M. B. Welborn president of the First National Bank of Atlanta and one of the leading business men of the town, temporary president of the Convict Bureau. He will take charge of his duties to day.

Mr. Welborn comes at the request of the governor to straighten out the affairs of the Convict Bureau, reorganizing it on a sound business basis. He not only accepts the appointment as temporary president, but also agrees to accept the position with the State at a personal sacrifice, according to the Governor.

Dry pickings were the lot of those who sat through the probe of the affairs of the Convict Bureau Tuesday. Three contracts were investigated at great length and in the minutest detail and not a sensation developed. It was easily the quietest day in Capitol circles since Throckmayer's visit.

During the morning session the contracts of the Throckmayer-Phillips Manufacturing Co., of Florence, and the Boyd Henderson Lumber Co., were gone into in detail and in the afternoon the contract of the Hosses Lumber Co. was investigated. Very little of discredit to the department was developed during the day, better contracts on their face than those under the previous administration being true in practically every case. Testimony of the Florence company that Oakley refused for more than a year to remove a warden who had made a corrupt proposition to the company was about the only allegation of the day against the administration of the Convict Bureau.

The warden H. D. Byrd had proposed it was testified that he shared in the extra earnings power of the convicts on a percentage basis. After the offer was refused and complaint made to the Convict Bureau it was testified he made a great deal of trouble for the company, causing continual complaints to be made to the department at Montgomery. It was alleged he kept the convicts discontented and was responsible for them threatening at one time to kill the superintendent of the company's plant. He was finally removed and discharged from the service of the state according to the witness.

G. W. Ragland left this morning for Houston, Tex., where he will be located for the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Strickland left for their home in Grand Rapids, Mich., after a few days stay in the city with relatives.

Chief Justice Fixes Date For Little Girl To See The President

Washington, March 26—Chief Justice White walked in the White House late Monday on an errand which surprised Secretary Tamm and his office staff.

The Chief Justice, who is an infrequent visitor to the executive offices, suddenly telephoned the secretary that he wanted to arrange an appointment with the president for a little girl whom he met at the capital. The little girl had caught the eye of the Chief Justice when he came from the Supreme Court chamber stopping to greet her. He learned that what she wanted was to shake hands with the president of the United States.

The Chief Justice said he would fix this early and stopped at the little house on his way home, arranging for an audience Tuesday afternoon in the last room where public receptions are held.

PASSENGERS CRAWL FROM CAR WINDOWS

Bellefonte, Pa., March 26—The locomotive and rear sleeping car of westbound Pennsylvania train No. 1 plunged into Mud River near West Liberty early today. The sleeping car fell at the side of the stream. The passengers crawled through the windows and waded to shore.

The other six coaches of the train remained on the rails.

The last two days heavy rain had swollen the river until the bridge was swept away just a short time before the train reached there. The train was being derailed by the Big Four Railroad from Lebanon to Bellefonte because of washouts on the Pennsylvania line. Conductor Philip Hum of Springfield was swept off the front of the engine into the river but landed on a bridge down stream.

Washouts prevented immediate aid from reaching the train. Inhabitants of West Liberty tried to get to the train by boat but the current was too swift. For nearly a quarter of a mile behind the train the river has risen over the tracks.

Several passengers are missing in Mud River on an island near West Liberty where they swam if for the accident occurred.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY GUNS' CONCUSSION

Crisfield, Md., March 25—The concussion from the big guns of the Atlantic fleet which began target practice Monday in lower Chesapeake Bay has wrought havoc in some rock county. Windows have been smashed chimneys knocked down and buildings have trembled on their foundations. Birds show windows in the principal stores of Crisfield were wrecked Monday afternoon.

Crisfield fishermen claim the fish industry is being greatly hampered by the shock which will kill all the fish within a radius of many miles. Farmers from all sections are pouring into Crisfield with the claim that the chicken industry has been demoralized, stating that the concussion from the guns has ruined the spring setting of eggs.

There will be Christian service this evening at 7:30 at 108 1/2 J. Main St. Visitors welcome.

You have no business to be on the job when you are infatuated.

The case of Dr. Hyde doesn't seem to matter much now. He might be discharged or acquitted and the public would care neither would the public suffer.

If you have been well pleased with a service with a trade with a vacation even with the first always offered you should show it. Don't wait till your attention is called to it.

Old Joe. Nothing but only wait Louisiana up as a health officer for the state, but if they will go one step further, and try him as governor he will probably show them that he has the capacity for that job. He is an Alabama product, and is hard to surprise or outclass.

By today's express goes a letter to Hon. ex-Governor Flowers made of Alabama honeycreepers as a token of our appreciation for his presence of mind during the recent catastrophe of his former confederates. A man who behaves himself with this degree of magnanimity should be treated considerably more, while he is living, and not wait till he cannot express thanks for the flowers piled high over his life.

The man who has no faith in the Hobbs County roads that are being built now, should go over some of them since the heavy rains. They are holding up much better than was expected. In fact, roads that were built a year ago, have needed nothing but judicious scraping, and they have been scraped. A good deal of scraping should be done, however, at this time after each rain, so that the roads may be kept in good shape, and free from the little gullies that start up in them when left alone.

President Roosevelt has set aside May the first, as the date when all Mexico will look up and smack its lips with the fresh feed satisfaction, and proclaim that all is well again. But we would remind President Roosevelt that during the intervening days between now and May the first, the job is liable to bite good, and he might slip out some night and hide himself (together with him all the numerous and his work he can find. There is no telling when they will take a notion to choke him to death and then throw a few guns and say he was making a desperate attempt to escape.

Speaking about getting even we saw a sack full of mail, just in from Washington, addressed to a man who has had nothing to do with Hobbs County since he left town. One man got a book or two but this man who is much more prominent got a whole mail sack full, weight about one hundred pounds. That is putting it over on an innocent bystander, or a man who has not expressed himself to far, on who he would support for senator, and a man who has never before been a Hobbs County man.

New Crop of Fools Every Year

ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY BY NOT REPORTING

The weekly papers of the state have been in a determination to place the blame for the robbery of the Dothan Eagle on the carrier. It is true that the carrier is responsible for the delivery of the paper, but it is not his fault if the paper is not delivered. The carrier is only a messenger, and he is not responsible for the contents of the paper. The paper is the property of the publisher, and it is his responsibility to see that it is delivered. The carrier is only a messenger, and he is not responsible for the contents of the paper.

This is a story which permits state officials to build over a million dollars without a cent of tax. It has been shown that with this kind of officials of this state, the state is a money pit. No law therefore, which does not protect the state from dishonest officials is good and the sooner the present law is corrected the better for the state.

It is still true, however, that no amount of money in the convict department does any money. And it is still true that the state of Georgia did not get the state's money.

Now, how are the weekly papers to get around this plain truth when trying to protect the taxpayer from just robbery to which he is being subjected?

And another thing, why did not the O'Neal legislators report this bad law? They reported, those infamous prohibition laws passed under the O'Neal administration. And we understand that the O'Neal legislators felt that if they assembled only in the interest of the home defense, whose job it is to repeal the prohibition laws and nothing else.

Governor O'Neal and his advisers will have to accept the responsibility for the present deplorable condition of the weekly papers in the country notwithstanding.—Hammington Ledger

PROSCRIBING "SUE MATED"

The grand inquest and nation against married women teachers at the schools have resulted in the discovery of two misstatements among the teachers at Washfield. They have been exposed in their full iniquity and angles of even have been pointed out at these. No working in the demand for feminine equality can be won. The married must be devalued. A new standard letter the thirteenth (instead of the first of the alphabet) must be added to all women who dare to take positions by bell, book and candle the new witch hunt must continue. No girl will woman must escape.

Of no use to be for any one to asport or to demonstrate that a married woman other qualities being equal makes a better teacher than a single woman because of broad experience and sympathies. The public schools do not exist and they never positively existed for the benefit of children or for the improvement of education. What they are left for is first to furnish the means for new girls to make a comfortable and genteel living until they are married and second, to provide a convenient way for the faithful pensioners of chronic spinsters.

Get into your head the idea that the schools do not exist primarily for educational reasons but to provide jobs for particular classes of women and you will see why married women even though better teachers should be expelled from the teaching corps. Every married woman on the payroll means a job kept away from some girl who wants to earn little pin money until married. Or else it means the least of some woman who has not been summoned to be the head of a home. Education should be the basis of the nation that the only function of the public schools is to educate the young, and that married women teachers are a threat to the future of the nation.

Appropriations

When you have all the money in the world, the point is not how much you have, but how you use it. Mr. Adams is a republican but he is not a republican in the sense of the word. He is a republican in the sense of the word, but he is not a republican in the sense of the word. He is a republican in the sense of the word, but he is not a republican in the sense of the word. He is a republican in the sense of the word, but he is not a republican in the sense of the word.

So, then, last words over again. We don't like to keep saying the same thing, but for the love of the money, let us say it again. Opp. Messenger.

Getting a Good Reputation
The new methods in coin culture are giving, in this respect, a wide spread reputation throughout the country. They show that we can grow corn here as profitably as anywhere in the country. If not more so. The old style of fifteen bushels per acre had created the impression that this was no a corn country. Now we know better. The old fifteen bushels per acre farming is beginning to ask itself why it cannot make fifty bushels per acre like the other fellow. The other fellow is doing it all right. In a corn time.

HEALTHY SECRET CHILD

Restored to Health by Vinol—A letter to Mothers

Any mother often wonders why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have no little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter.

I, Edmund Miller, New Haven Conn. says: My little daughter ever since her birth has been frail and sickly and was a constant source of worry to me. Several months ago we commenced to give Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim.

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicine at hand and the blood making and strength creating properties of Vinol.

Vinol will build up and strengthen on delicate children old people and the weak run down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails. N. H. McCallum Druggist, Dothan, Ala.

His Mash Note

In her suite in a New York hotel Sarah Bernhardt was narrating reminiscences of the stage to a group of dramatic critics.

"Mash notes" you call them next on "paw" she said laughing. Well I received a very funny mash note once in a small town of your far west.

You are adorable my mash note ran and I have preferred to send you orchids but in this one horse town I am reduced to pound molasses candy of which I am forwarding a two pound bag. Will you take supper with me tonight in a private room at the tavern? If you consent blow your nose on the stage and I will under stand.

Mme Bernhardt laughed again. "And the worst of it was," she said "I had a bad cold at the time and was afraid to blow my nose all the evening."

FOUND THE PHONE HANDY

ver in Order or Intended to Be but the Manager Could Hardly Do Business Without It

I did not want to open the door to a large family but we can't stand for anything like this. The woman's indignation turned to pity. She said that possibly she had been a little hasty and perhaps the piece of furniture was not second hand after all she ended by saying she would rather keep it than have the man lose his place.

The manager thanked her and said that under the circumstances he might reconsider the matter. The woman departed in good humor. Then the manager smiled as he looked at his telephone which never had been in order and never would be. It is a phony phone but he needs it in his business.

Curious Duel

An apothecary having refused to give up his seat in a theater to an officer's lady the officer felt himself insulted and sent him a challenge. The apothecary presented himself at the place of meeting, at the appointed time. He said however that he was not accustomed to the use of fire arms but he would propose another way of settling the dispute. He then drew from his pocket a pill box took from it two pills and thus addressed his antagonist. As a man of honor you would surely wish to fight me only on equal terms. Here are two pills one composed of the most deadly poison and the other perfectly harmless. We are on equal ground if we each swallow one. You shall take your choice and I promise faithfully to take the one you leave.

The officer laughed heartily at the strange proposal and shaking hands they parted good friends.

Chains of Black Velvet Ribbon. Black velvet ribbon chains with slides of metal and semiprecious stones are very pretty and fashionable for a lorgnette or watch.

Thank you madam for bringing this matter to our attention. If you will keep that dress a day or two I will have it repaired out of the next shipment from the factory. I rather ate to discharge Jones because he has a wife and large family but we can't stand for anything like this. The woman's indignation turned to pity. She said that possibly she had been a little hasty and perhaps the piece of furniture was not second hand after all she ended by saying she would rather keep it than have the man lose his place.
